Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. W. E. Cheswell, under the heading of "New Arrivals." He has for sale high grade stock—37 hogs and pigs, 3 horses and a mule—which can be seen at his plantation, near Courthouse Station.

We have been requested to give notice that there will be no preaching in the Seneca Methodist church on next Sunday morning and night, owing to the absence of Rev. J. L. Daniel in attendance upon the District Conference at Piedmont.

Mr. Harry Reed and Allen Green, colored, were before Mayor Gibson Wednesday morning charged with refusing to pay street tax or work on the streets. They gave their choice between $5.00 fines or five days, and they took five days.

We ask our readers to carefully consider the merits of the new advertisement cards appearing in this paper. The Courier takes no sides between men where principle is involved, and is perfectly willing for the people to choose for themselves.

Mr. John B. S. Dendy, a student in the South Carolina College, returned to his home in Wallalla last Thursday, to spend his vacation. He took a high stand in his class in all his studies and will be advanced to the junior class at the beginning of next session.

Mr. Dr. J. C. Law, Jr., a student in the South Carolina College, is spending a few days with his young friend, Mr. John B. S. Dendy, of Wallalla, on his way to his home in Ocala, Fla. Mr. Law is the son of Rev. John C. Law, of the late Methodist church in this place.

Messrs. W. J. Neville, Jr., and J. J. Norton returned home Wednesday evening from a visit to Franklin, N. C. They are having enjoyed a pleasant trip, but the friends of Mr. Neville are disappointed that he did not bring the lady back with him. They seem to have missed Mr. Neville in one of his beautiful moments of late.

Mr. D. A. Smith, Jr., formerly of the Commerce force, is now holding a position with the Carter Merchandise Company, in Wallalla. We wish him much success in his new position. Mr. Fred A. H. Schneider is again with the Courier after having been with the Hampton Guardian and other papers for about three years.

Mrs. Geo. H. Peckham and daughter, Miss Jessie, of Greenville, arrived in Wallalla last Tuesday evening. They will soon become permanent residents, and will move into the new cottage recently built by Mr. C. W. Peckham on Main street, this week. The friends of Mr. A. P. Crisp will regret to learn of his illness. He has been confined to his bed for some time, but has very apparent improvement of a prolonged attack of fever. Mr. Crisp at this writing is no better than for a week past.

Anderson, Intelligencer: "Congressman Laffoon was in the city of Greenville in Bolton last week, but is now in Washington. He spent a few days in the city Monday afternoon."

Abbeville Press and Banner: Mrs. G. L. Peckham and daughter, Miss Jessie Peckham, left Tuesday for Wallalla, where they will make their home for the present. During their stay in Abbeville they have made a number of friends who sincerely regret to see them leave.

Mr. C. Valer and wife, of Charlotte, N. C., are visiting her father, Mr. A. S. Sweeney, and family. They arrived in Wallalla on Tuesday, and will spend a few days at the old homestead. Mr. Valer does an extensive business in bottling beer, mineral and soda waters.

Miss Corrie Phinney returned yesterday evening from Wallalla to the Atlanta College, where she has just completed her second year. Corrie is one of our brightest young girls and stands high in her class. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Phinney, who are now residents of West Union.

Ernest F. Cochran, Esq., formerly a citizen of Wallalla, but now a prominent attorney at Anderson, S. C., has recently been appointed Assistant District Attorney for the United States Circuit Court, and went down to Charleston last week to qualify. His many friends in the county are glad to learn of his appointment to this important position.

This is the way the latest song goes, according to the Roanoke World: "We don't want to buy at your place; we don't trade there any more. You'll be sorry when you see us going to some other store. You can't sell us any state goods; we have opened wide our eyes; we don't want to trade at your store, 'cause you do not a-d-e-r-i-s-e."

What delinquency could be so heartless as to resist an appeal like this from the Lexington (S. C.) Dispatch: "Blackberries are now in the market. They will only send the almighty dollar so that we can get the sugar and the shortening for pies we will be in the swim. Let them be sold at a low price, the hunger and thirst and feast on blackberry pies. Let the dollars roll in."

The following persons went on L. P. Smith's excursion to Atlanta on Tuesday: James Thompson, Hayne Jones, John Lay, J. P. Hutchins, J. C. Wilson, T. C. Hunter, Richard Warner, Abram Naggare, Phillip Naggare, J. M. Baldwin and Misses Mary and Eva Simpson. They all report a very pleasant trip. Mr. Smith knows how to arrange everything for the comfort of his patrons.

Major Gus Shanklin, of Clemson College, is in Wallalla to-day. He is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Capt. J. L. Shanklin, near Richland. During the absence of Capt. Fuller, Major Shanklin has been acting as commandant of the military department of Clemson. His many friends have watched his course with deep interest. They are pleased to note the success which he has already achieved, and wish him still greater things in the future.

To Cure Constipation—Ever Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c. or 25c. per box. C. C. Call to cure druggists refund money.

First Cotton Blossom. The first cotton bloom reported in Oconee county opened in the field of Mr. W. K. Power, near Fair Play, on June 15th.

At the Foot of Humphreys Mountain. Mr. Wm. G. Perry, of Seneca, has been the Sargeant house of the Humphreys Mountain for the summer. His family will occupy it for the months of July, August and September.

No Preaching. There will be no preaching at Fairview and Newry on next Sunday, owing to the fact that the Greenville District Conference will be in session. Rev. J. L. Daniel, J. C. McLENNAN, J. P. C.

Got Out of the Navy. Mr. C. C. Ochsner is expected to arrive in Wallalla this afternoon from New York, where she went to get her son, Carl, out of the navy. It is understood that she will bring him back with her, having succeeded in influencing the authorities to release him, notwithstanding he had already enlisted and was on the eve of sailing from New York.

Large Field of Wheat. Mr. H. L. Brandt, near Wallalla, made 15 bushels of wheat this year from four rows last fall. This makes a total of 29 bushels to one sowed. Mr. Brandt beats any one Oconee county growing wheat, or any thing else for that matter. Mr. Brandt's farming is on the intensive plan and every acre of land is made to produce all that genial sunshine, moisture and high fertilization can make.

Death of an Infant. Joseph Harry, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Kaufmann, aged eleven months and eight days, died in Wallalla on Saturday afternoon, June 18, at 6:20 o'clock, from an attack of cholera infantum. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. C. Schuch, were held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which the remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery. The bereaved ones line the heartfelt sympathies of our many friends.

Moved to Greenville. Mr. K. O. Wright and family left Wednesday for Greenville, where he will open a stock of general merchandise. Mr. Wright is an enterprising young business man, and will be greatly missed at his mark in his new home. Mr. M. W. Wright, who, until recently, did business in Wallalla, will clerk for his brother, K. O. Wright, in Greenville.

The Revival Services Closed. The revival services were concluded Wednesday evening in the Wallalla Presbyterian church, after being conducted continuously for fifteen days by Rev. Thos. H. Dietrich, assisted by Mr. Fred Marshall. Considerable interest was manifested, and the closing meeting was easily the best of the series. Rev. Mr. Dietrich is a strong preacher, and knows how to handle the Word so as to give each his portion in due season. Wherever he goes great good is accomplished by his labors.

Come to the District Conference.

Rev. J. L. Daniel, of the Wallalla and Seneca Station, and Rev. J. L. Mullis, of the Wallalla Circuit, left for the Greenville District Conference early Wednesday morning. This body convened at Piedmont on the 22d instant and will be in session four or five days.

This is No Job. While talking with a gentleman from the lower part of this State last week several young ladies of Wallalla passed by. "You heard people talk about pretty girls," he said, "and you certainly have got them up here. I have not seen a young lady since I came to Wallalla who isn't positively pretty." He believes there are more pretty girls in Wallalla, in proportion to population, than in any town I have visited. The strength of this compliment lies in the fact that the gentleman who made the statement is married, and is, therefore, disinterested.

Visiting His Native Branch. Mr. Nat. L. Davis, of Waco, Texas, is in Wallalla to-day. He reached Oconee the first of this week and will spend the summer visiting relatives and friends in South Carolina. This is his "native branch," having been born and reared near Westminister. He went to Texas twelve years ago, and, after being admitted to the bar, settled in the city of Waco for the practice of his profession. He is a talented young attorney and has acquired an enviable reputation as a practitioner. His many friends are delighted to meet him again and wish him a pleasant sojourn in Carolina soil.

The Bird Contract Let. Mr. C. M. Nield has contracted with J. L. Dietrich, of the erection of a handsome brick store building on his lot on Main street where his hotel building was burned on the third instant. The store is to be 30x80 feet. The front of the building will be 22 feet high. Just sixteen days after the fire broke out was broken for the new building, and it is to be completed by September 1st next. This commendable enterprise manifested by Mr. Nield gives him the distinction of being the first to begin rebuilding after the destruction of his hotel. Others will follow close in his footsteps. Mr. J. D. Verner, Mrs. Sophia Ritter and Miss Nettie Leitch, will begin the erection of their buildings in a short time. Mr. Nield will still enjoy the distinction of being first.

Attention, County Candidates. The attention of all the county candidates is called to the following extract from the Constitution of the Democratic Party of the State: "No vote shall be counted for any candidate who does not file with the Chairman of the County Executive Committee a pledge in writing to support the platform of the party, and to support the nominees thereof, and that he is not nor will he become the candidate of any faction, party or interest, and that he will support the regular Democratic nomination; provided further, that no candidate shall be declared nominated unless he receives a majority of the votes cast for the office for which he is a candidate. Provided, that the pledge of such candidate shall be filed on or before the day of the first campaign meeting of the county."

A Street Fight. On last Friday evening, about 8 o'clock, three colored citizens, three of the most notorious of peaceful every-day life, got into a street fight at the corner of Ann and South Broad streets. Fighting and fighting at the same time, they soon found themselves at the corner of Ann and South Broad streets. They were met by P. H. Dickson, who was iron grasp Julia Pickens wandered unsuspectingly. Seeing their feminine partner in disgrace, the women in the street, Mr. and Mrs. Owens Williams, the other two combatants, left without ceremony. They were afterwards arrested by Policemen Dickson and Pickens. Mayor Gibson's matinee Saturday morning Cesar Pickens was given $7 or four hundred dollars on the streets and Owens Williams $5 or ten days for disorderly conduct and fighting. The dusky dames, being charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, was turned over to the police, and they are now in the hands of the law. Mayor Gibson has a delicate about working "ladies" on the streets, and therefore dismissed Julia Pickens as regards the charge of disorderly conduct.

Furman University and the Greenville Female College. The commencements of Furman University and the Greenville Female College were exceedingly pleasant occasions from the hallowed sermons on Sunday to the final exercises Thursday night, when five young ladies graduated from the Female College. This institution has passed through its most successful session under President Riley, two hundred and six having been enrolled this year.

The annual concert under Prof. G. Ferrata was a splendid exhibition of the highest order of music, and the anniversary of the Judson Literary Society was a most successful affair.

Furman University graduated fourteen young men and one young lady, Miss McGee, Greenville.

The election of officers Wednesday night was presided over by President Montague, whose energy, tact, wisdom and ability are doing so much for Furman. The Furman Alumni have raised $8,000 for the new alumni hall. They will easily secure $2,000 additional when Prof. Johnson will give $5,000, and the work of building will begin immediately.

Rev. H. L. Mosely was re-elected President of the Association. Furman seems to have entered upon a new era of prosperity and success.

Due West Colleges—Commencement Exercises. On June 15th we left Seneca for Due West, S. C., to attend the fifty-ninth commencement of Furman College. Our trip to Due West will never be forgotten, as every moment of the five days, from the ideal town were fraught with unalloyed pleasure. The kind people of this town are noted for their hospitality at all times, but during commencement week they seem to vie with each other in their efforts to entertain the "stranger within their gates."

It is not surprising that the two colleges located there are renowned, both far and wide, for the high "standing" light among colleges, their surroundings are certainly congenial and inspiring.

The commencement exercises began on Monday evening, June 13th, and continued until Thursday morning. The programmes were said to be equal to, if not better, than any of her predecessors.

There is great response in the college diplomas and their essays were bright with wit, humor and intelligence. A full description is entirely beyond my powers. I can only say that each effort was good and each young lady was beautifully and becomingly attired.

From Furman College seventeen young men were graduated. The most notable was ever a brighter or handsomer set of boys sent out from this famous seat of learning. It is impossible to particularize when all acquitted themselves so creditably.

The anniversary address was delivered by Hon. John J. Leitz, of Columbia, S. C., who is a most able and eloquent orator. His address was full of wisdom and common sense from his feeble pen. E. M. H. Seneca, S. C., June 22, 1898.

The Latest War News. Washington, D. C., June 22.—Gen. Shafter's army, now on Cuban soil, 50 miles from Santiago, is expected to be engaged to-morrow. The men are in line to attack from both the rear and front.

The war department orders tonight that special on the movements of troops are not to be telegraphed from any point. There is great response in the war department and there will continue to be suspense throughout administration circles until there has been fought a decisive battle at Santiago.

James T. Gatewood, General Lee's private stenographer, was instantly killed by a bullet from a clear sky at Jacksonville last Sunday. He and Chris Robertson were walking together. The latter was badly paralyzed, but he may recover. Gatewood was from Richmond, and had been with the General only a few days.

OUR WESTMINSTER BUDGET.

WESTMINSTER, S. C., June 21.—According to the almanac this is the longest day of the year.

Rev. R. R. Dagnall and son, Mr. A. H. Dagnall, went to Piedmont Wednesday to be in attendance upon the meeting of the Greenville District Conference. Rev. Mr. Dagnall will preach the anniversary sermon.

Miss Rosa Mathewson, one of Westminister's loveliest and most accomplished young ladies, returned from Hartwell, Ga., yesterday, where she has been employed as a teacher in the Hartwell High School.

The first cotton bloom is reported from the field of Wiley Ferguson, colored. It was opened on Saturday, 18th instant. Ferguson is a hard working negro. He farms on Mr. Wm. Bibb's farm on the River Road.

Mr. J. E. Gaines went to Rome, Ga., to-day on business. A mad-dog was said to be town to-day, but other dogs. Don't forget the muzzle if you allow your dog to run at large.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. "Ang" Stewart, of Hartwell, is dead. He was a noble young fellow and has been away in the prime of his manhood and usefulness. Four weeks ago he contracted a fever which he caught in the town of Pelzer. He brought home for treatment, but the dread disease was too much for the sufferer and he died last Thursday. His wife was located at Chauga on Friday. Mr. Stewart was a son of Mr. Jacob Stewart.

The revival meeting, which is being conducted by Mr. Thos. H. Dietrich and Mr. Fred Marshall, is held in the Academy. It was finally chosen, as it can seat more people than any of the churches.

Mr. W. M. Zimmerman, of Atlanta, Ga., spent Sunday at home. The friends of Mr. Hardy Sadtler, of Anderson, are spending the week here in town a few days ago.

Mrs. L. A. Mathewson, after spending some time at Hartwell, Ga., with relatives, returned to her home in Westminister. She is a very pleasant young lady and has acquired an enviable reputation as a practitioner. Her many friends are delighted to meet her again and wish her a pleasant sojourn in Carolina soil.

Does Baby Grow?

If your baby is delicate and sickly and its food does not nourish it, put fifteen or twenty drops of Scott's Emulsion in its bottle three or four times a day and you will see a marked change.

We have had abundant proof that they will thrive on this emulsion when other food fails to nourish them.

It is the same with larger children that are delicate, Scott's Emulsion seems to be the element lacking in their food. Do not fail to try it if your children do not thrive.

It is as useful for them in summer as in winter.

Ask your doctor if this is not true.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York

OUR SENECA BUDGET.

ADDED FACTS ABOUT THE CONVENTION. SENECA, S. C., June 21.—A few things concerning the recent Woman's Convention remain yet unsaid. Foremost in the election of the President of this noble body from Seneca, a charming compilation to the town and to one of the town's bright and energetic women. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. M. W. Coleman, Seneca; President, Mrs. W. T. P. Meeks, Seneca; Recording Secretary, Miss Louise Poppenheim, Charleston; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Thompson, Charleston; Treasurer, Miss E. K. Kosh, Rock Hill; Auditor, Mrs. Griddle, Greenville.

Charleston, Chester and Spartanburg were in the meeting, and Chester was decided upon.

A metal band, containing its history, is to be placed around the gavel presented by the ladies of Seneca.

Worthy of complimentary mention are the talks made by Mrs. Julia Johnson, on the Mother's Club of the Free Kindergarten, Atlanta, Ga., and by Mrs. L. A. Mathewson, of Wallalla, and the State's education by Mrs. Griddle, of Greenville.

In view of the fact that it is customary for such organizations to have an official organ, Miss Thompson offered the columns of the Greenville News, Mrs. Meeks, of Seneca, offered the Spartanburg papers, Mrs. Sereen said a word for the State, and Miss Hemphill called attention to the work done for woman by the ladies of Seneca.

The line of work decided upon for the federation (library extension being given prominence) embraced agriculture, civics, art, music, child culture, village improvement, philanthropy, history and literature.

OTHER ITEMS. Mrs. Nettie Mathwin Holder, of Harmony Grove, Ga., was the guest of her friend, Mrs. T. M. Lowery, during the Seneca Convention.

Miss Olive Hix, of Wallalla, spent several days last week with Mrs. T. M. Lowery.

Mrs. E. and Mrs. R. W. Simpson were in town Monday morning, returning from Virginia to their home at Piedmont, S. C.

Miss J. E. Brazzale, of Anderson, visited her sister, Mrs. W. T. P. Meeks, of Seneca, last week.
